Maintenance of the Poor.

To the Taxpayers of West Rutland:—

Your selectmen on taking charge of the poor, realized the need of a radical change in its management and to prevent jealousy, advertised for bids for the maintenance of the poor at the farm. We received eleven bids and awarded it to the lowest bidder at $7.00 a month for each adult, and one-third for children between the age of three and eight years. Tramps the same proportion. This method prevents dishonesty, gives good satisfaction and will in time pay the town debt and we urge the taxpayers to continue it. The town is secured from loss by a good bond. Lower bids can be secured for the coming year and in time the farm will be self-supporting. We have helped all outside poor whom we believed needed it. Please note the difference in cost of the poor for 1893 and 1894:

WM. MANGHAN,	} School Directors.
CARROLL B. ROSS,
H. F. KELLEY,
JOHN O'ROURKE,
T. B. WHEELER,
F. A. MCCARTHY,

Report of Town Superintendent.

To the Taxpayers of West Rutland:—

There are fourteen schools in your town which have been in session during the year (exclusive of central districts). I have visited each school once in a term as the law required. Spent one-half day in each visit. Made myself acquainted with workings of the systems of each school.

TEACHERS.

You have two graded schools in your town, presided over by two excellent and efficient principals, with a staff of hard working teachers under them, who spare no pains in teaching and caring for your children.

HIGH SCHOOLS.

In fact you have two high schools in your town capable of imparting the higher mathematics to your children. In district twenty-one there is an excellent school, teaching subjects outside of what is required by the state: bookkeeping, algebra, geometry, and as supplementary work our best poets, both American and English. A Latin class has been introduced the last year, for any child who wished to take it. Also an evening school is taught three nights each week, during the winter for those boys who wish to attend it. I would say a very good opportunity for those boys who cannot attend day school, all without any cost to the town. The janitor at least should receive some pay for his trouble in keeping fires.

SCHOOL HOUSES.

Your directors have spared no trouble, as far as their resources would permit, the last year, to improve your school houses; the year gone by being a year for cutting down expenses. They were never in such good trim both in their inward fixings and sanitary condition. In all my visits I have heard no complaints from any teacher that the school room was cold. District seven in particular has been renovated, so that you would not know it. It is a pleasure to visit it.

Still there are some things in our schools which need looking after, particularly in our high departments, such as globes and maps.

During the year there were registered in the town district 587 children,

District, 21	321
District, 7	217
District, 6	26
District, 8	23

I would remark here that the children in district eight do not attend school as they ought. Where there are 23 children registered at the beginning of the year, there were only 9 children present at my last visit. I would recommend to our next board that they find some way to make those children attend school, or embody that district in district No. 7, as there is plenty of room for them.

There have been six scholarships signed by me from the town to Castleton Normal School, which is a good showing for West Rutland.

Our schools have been very free from deaths the past year; only one death occurred. There were some cases of sickness in district No. 21, which was the cause of the schools closing for a week.

There has been no truant officer appointed the past year. Our constable did all that was to be done. With exception of district No. 8 the children have attended well.

TOWN SYSTEM AND GRADED SYSTEM

work well together, one equalizes taxes, the other children. They are the only systems fit for school purposes. The graded system gives every child fair play. As the children are classed according to age and ability, with a teacher especially for that grade, a child can learn more in one year, than he or she could in three in the old system. It is equally true in the town system. You will have better schools and school houses. No bickering and squabbling as in the old districts. Every man according to his standing pays his share of the taxes. In another year with good supervision your schools will be inferior to none in the state.

E. McCORMICK,

Superintendent.

Librarian's Report.

The library was made free April 1, 1894.

Since then there has been an enormous increase in the total circulation. The number of books taken out in 1893 was eighteen hundred, while during the last ten months the circulation has been four thousand.

There have been one hundred and fifty books added during the year, making the total number in the library nine hundred and fifty. At the last meeting of the trustees it was voted to recommend a tax of two per cent.

This would pay the expenses, and add about three hundred volumes to the library, which is now much too small to meet the demands of the public.
